The Department of Languages & Literatures at the University of Northern Iowa is looking for YOU!

Are you a Russian national interested in pursuing a Master’s Degree in English starting Fall 2013? We have programs in literature, teaching, English as a Second Language, and Creative Writing! And we have a scholarship for qualified candidates to join our international and American students in our programs.

If you are interested, contact us!

The Theodore & Grace Ann Hovet Endowed Scholarship gives $5,000 that will be awarded in 2013-2014 to a Russian national for the pursuit of a Master of Arts in English (Literature, Creative Writing and TESS [Teaching English in the Secondary Schools]) or Master of Arts in TESOL at the University of Northern Iowa.

Applicants must be Russian nationals, hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited university or its equivalent, have a minimum cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 (out of 4.0) or its equivalent, and have a minimum TOEFL (600 paper or 250 computer) or IELTS (7.0). This is a one-time only award.

Applicants will also be asked to prepare a 2-page double-spaced paper explaining why you deserve this scholarship insofar as it will help you achieve your academic and/or professional goals.

Deadline: April 19, 2013.

For details of the admission process, contact the department secretary at knebel@uni.edu.